Stafford Creek Corrections Center – December 2010 Vol 2 / No 12
Final Graduation of the Year - Makes 8!

The Last Graduation of the year was held in the visit room of SCCC on 11-18-10. In attendance were the new owners, the offender trainers, DOC staff, and Freedom Tails personnel. CUS Cherry led the ceremony talking about the “win-win” program, and how the Freedom Tails was making “great dogs out of dogs that, before coming here, didn’t have a chance.” The offender trainers proceeded to showcase the dogs’ talents, as a group, giving verbal and silent hand-only commands. Next, each set of offender trainers introduced their dog, giving a brief history of their background and the current learning status. Each offender was then given a Certificate of Training with their dog’s name and picture. At the end of the ceremony, the excited new families were introduced to their new member. The families were also given a certificate of training and the daily journal logged thru-out the program. Trainer Thomas-Blake and Sergeant McCarty proceeded to mingle with the guests answering questions about the program and the dogs.

Scooby is still looking for a home.....

He lies down when I sit, and walks when I walk, which is more than many good friends can pretend to do.
